WEALTH MANAGEMENT

Player Sponsorship Offering

Allow us to serve as your financial concierge, so you can focus your energy on playing great golf. We will provide a host of services at our expense to support you, in exchange for you wearing the GGWM logo on your clothing.

When you put us on your team...

- You have my financial expertise for yourself and your family members. You can contact me seven days a week.
- Our independent CPA and I will meet with you and determine if it makes sense to remain a sole proprietor or become an S Corporation.
- If it is determined you will save money by becoming an S Corporation, I will assist in setting up your corporation, pay your filing fees, and assist with filing your annual reports.
- I will distribute your W-9s to your agent and sponsors as needed.
- I will advise you on your LPGA supplemental retirement plan, helping to ensure you enroll on time each year and keep your beneficiaries up to date.
- I will make you a set of free, custom golf club labels from www.golfblab.com

How we get paid...

- If you invest with Girl Golf Wealth Management, I will earn our standard investment advisory fee on the assets I manage.
- If our independent CPA does your taxes or provides additional services, she will charge you her standard fees.
